

Sage Intacct Acquires Budgeta

Budgeta Customer Frequently Asked Questions

On September 12, 2018 Sage Intacct announced its launch of Sage Intacct Budgeting and Planning, which is built on Budgeta.

Together, Sage Intacct and Budgeta will provide existing customers with the same benefits they have enjoyed from their Budgeta subscription, with the resources and market vision of Sage Intacct. The Budgeta team is excited to join Sage Intacct, bringing their knowledge and capabilities in budgeting and planning.

Is Sage Intacct committed to Budgeta's vision?

When Budgeta met with Sage Intacct we discovered both companies have a similar goal—to help smaller businesses succeed with solutions that help them be more efficient and effective. Budgeta also realized they could reach more companies and enhance the product in less time by partnering with Sage Intacct. Combined with the cultural fit between the two companies, it made joining the Sage Intacct family a no brainer.

Will I be forced to change or upgrade my Budgeta subscription?

No, your subscription for Budgeta, which is now Sage Intacct Budgeting and Planning, continues without change. Sage Intacct Budgeting and Planning is now also available as an integrated module with Sage Intacct. If you'd like more information about the combined offering, visit the Sage Intacct Budgeting and Planning web page.

How will my product support experience change?

Near term, your product support will continue as it does today. In the coming months Sage Intacct will expand their support to include the current Budgeta customers. Sage Intacct is a leader in customer satisfaction as evidenced by a rating of 98 out of 100 on G2 Crowd, based on more than 375 verified customer reviews. Key satisfaction areas highlighted in the report include: quality of customer support, ease of use, ease of administration, ease of doing business with, ease of setup, and how well the solution meets customer needs.

Is my version different from the one used by Sage Intacct customers?

No, all customers are using the same version.

Will Sage Intacct continue to support the Budgeta product?

Yes, your subscription to Budgeta will be rebranded to Sage Intacct Budgeting and Planning and continues without change.

Where can I find out more information about the Sage Intacct Budgeting and Planning and the merger?
